Barnardos is New Zealand’s leading children’s charity, doing more for Kiwi kids. Every year our services and people make a real and positive difference in the lives of thousands of children, young people and their families.

Our vision / moemoeā
An Aotearoa New Zealand where every child shines bright.

Our mission/kaupapa
Be the voice and greatest fan of the next generation
Shape brighter futures via early education and targeted social services
Create insightful ways to empower tamariki/children to shine bright

Our Guiding Principles
Kotahitanga – Unity Ata Whakarongo – Hear with Intent
Mahi tōtika – Do the Right Things Well Māiatanga – Realise Potential
Kaikōkiritanga – Progress with Purpose

Barnardos is committed to the Treaty of Waitangi as a founding document of New Zealand.

Purpose of the role:
The purpose of the role is to assess, plan and implement a curriculum to infants, toddlers and young children that reflects current approaches to effective teaching and learning, aligned to Te Whāriki, the early childhood curriculum in Aotearoa. Teachers will also engage in the implementation of a curriculum which enhances children’s well-being and promotes their learning and development.

Purpose of the unit:
Barnardos Early Learning centres provide a warm and caring environment with trained and experienced staff. Our teachers work in partnership with parents to support their child’s learning and ensure there is continuity between home and the centre. All our centres offer care and education for children aged from two to five years, and many also cater for children aged under two years old.
Key Result Areas

Teaching and Learning

Outcome: The centre provides a supportive and professional learning environment where children are engaged and their interests and strengths are developed in partnership with whānau.

Key responsibilities include:

- As part of the teaching team, deliver a curriculum that reflects current approaches to effective teaching and learning, aligned to Te Whāriki, the early childhood curriculum in Aotearoa.
- Plan, implement and evaluate a learning programme collaboratively with the teaching team, ensuring the programme is responsive to the strengths and interests of children.
- Promote learning opportunities which are inclusive, equitable and culturally responsive.
- Document children’s learning and take responsibility for children’s profile books and e-portfolio as agreed with the centre professional leader.
- Adhere to the educational standards and criteria outlined in Barnardos policies and procedures, Barnardos Professional Standards Framework, the Education Council’s practising teacher criteria, Code of Ethics and relevant legislation for early childhood services.

Relationships and Communication

Outcome: Whānau and community are welcomed and valued, and parents are encouraged to partner in their child’s learning.

Key responsibilities include:

- Develop positive relationships with children, whānau, staff, management and the extended Barnardos whanau.
- Share information with parents and whānau regarding children’s daily experiences, well-being and learning and development.
- Maintain confidentiality regarding children, parents, whānau, staff and centre information.
- Discuss concerns and complaints raised by parents and whānau with the centre professional leader.
